From The Deputy Commissioner Bangalore Dt
No. C1-1962/29-30 dt 13.11.29

States that as per annexure I to Notification No. D2394/Legis 12-23-1 dt 7.11.23, the No of Members to be returned by the Rural constituency of Bangalore Taluk & Closepet to the Taluk to the R.A is 3 & 1 respectively. Since the last elections Bangalore Taluk has been bifurcated into Separate municipalities to Bangalore City & Bangalore Taluk with Separate jurisdictions & Closepet has been converted into a Sub Taluk. & Accordingly vide 3101-2/2 B30-29-39 dt 28.10.29 & Camp K7/KB30-29 dated 15.11.29 fixing the number of Members to be elected by the General constituencies for the Bangalore City, the Bangalore Taluk, Bangalore City & Closepet Taluk constituencies have to elect 3, 1, & 2 members respectively & therefore proposes that the same No of members may be elected by the above States Rural Constituencies also to R.A.

Submitted.

As regards Closepet Taluk separate action has been taken to increase the Number of members to be returned by that Constituency from 1 to 2.

The Dy Comr Bangalore Dt states that as Bangalore Taluk has been divided into two viz Bangalore City Taluk, & Bangalore Taluk, the Number of members to be returned by Bangalore city Taluk be fixed

It is submitted that for the purpose of representation in the R.A & L.C.
Bangalore city is an Urban Constituency and Bangalore Taluk is a Rural Constituency.

Bangalore city Urban Constituency is represented by 4 members and Bangalore Taluk Rural Constituency is represented by 3 members in the R.A.

It is seen from the Govt order No. R 12084
dated 10th August 1928 that the L.R.S.24-27-6 Bangalore city Amildar has jurisdiction over the Kasba & Yelahanka Hobli consisting of 98 villages, both Govt & Inam,
the Bangalore Taluk Amildar, jurisdiction over the remaining 7 hobli's of 40 odd villages.

It is a point for order, whether the new Bangalore City Taluk with 98 villages, is to be considered as a separate Rural Constituency for the R.A under the first Schedule of the R.A Regulation. And if so it is to be so considered, whether the No. of Members to be allotted to the Bangalore Taluk

15/11

It appears from the G.O. of 10-8-1928 that the work of the Bangalore Taluk is divided between two Municipalities and that the Taluk itself remains intact. In this view the entire Taluk (excluding the Bangalore city) may be regarded as a single rural constituency for the R-A, as it has been hitherto under the first Schedule to the R-A. Regulation. Otherwise a disproportionate reallocation of seats between the two parts of the Taluk will have to be made as suggested by the Dy-Com^r; & consistently with G.O. no. L-3101-2/L.B. 30-29-39 dt. 28-10-1929.

+ a disproportionate reallocation, as pointed out in the opening note above.

Government of his highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

GENERAL AND REVENUE DEPARTMENTS.

G. O. No. R. 1205-64—L. R. 524-27-6, dated 10th August 1928.

A Separate Amildar for Bangalore City.

Issues orders re the appointment of —— with jurisdiction over the Kasaba and Yesvantpur Hoblis.

READ—

Letter No. 5522—27-28, dated the 13th June 1928, from the Revenue Commissioner in Mysore, forwarding the proposals of the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District, in the matter of having a separate Amildar for Bangalore City with a defined jurisdiction.

ORDER No. R. 1205-64—L. R. 524-27-6, DATED 10TH AUGUST 1928.

The Revenue Commissioner states that the Bangalore Taluk has become too heavy to be managed by a single Amildar. The mere routine and special calls on the Amildar's time are stated to absorb so much of his attention that he has very little leisure left to devote himself to questions concerning the welfare of the people. Income-tax work constitutes a considerable addition to his duties. There is lack of continuous supervision over the work of the office staff, with the result that arrears have accumulated. Government agree with the Revenue Commissioner in the view that some relief is necessary.

2. The Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore, has submitted through the Revenue Commissioner, the following proposals in this connection. There is to be an Amildar for Bangalore City with jurisdiction over the Kasaba and Yesvantpur Hoblis. Part of the existing staff of the Bangalore Taluk Office, as noted below, is to be added on to the establishment of the City Amildar :—

(1) Shekdar of Kasaba Hobli with his peons.
(2) Shekdar of Yesvantpur Hobli with his peons.
(3) Income-tax Shekdar.
(4) Shekdar for the execution of Co-operative Decrees with his peons.
(5) Muzrai Clerk.
(6) Special Staff (2 gumastas).
(7) One gumasta on Rs. 30.

3. The following additional establishment is also proposed :—

(1) Head Gumasta on Rs. 40.
(2) Head Munshi on Rs. 35.
(3) Two process servers on Rs. 15—1—20.

Menial Establishment.

(4) One Duffedar on Rs. 14.
(5) Two peons on Rs. 12 each.
(6) Four peons on Rs. 11 each.

The new Amildar will thus be responsible for the administration of 98 villages, both Government and Inam, and for a total revenue, under all heads of a little over 12 lakhs of rupees.

4. The Revenue Commissioner endorses the proposal of the Deputy Commissioner with the modification that instead of six peons, only four, two on Rs. 12 and two on Rs. 11 may be given. Government, however, are of opinion that even with this reduction the scale of additional establishment proposed is heavy and capable of further reduction. Instead of having one Head Gumasta on Rs. 40 and one Head Munshi on Rs. 35 it will be enough, if one clerk on Rs. 35, is given. It is not necessary to grant a duty allowance of Rs. 50 to the City Amildar when he is in receipt of a fixed travelling allowance of Rs. 50. With these modifications, the additional establishment required will be as follows and the same is sanctioned for a period of two years.

		Average cost.
		Rs.
(1) City Amildar 150—25/2—250	..	$212\frac{2}{9}$
(2) Fixed travelling allowance Rs. 50	..	50
(3) One clerk on Rs. 35	..	35
(4) Two process servers on Rs. 15—1—20	..	$36\frac{2}{9}$
Menial Establishment.
(5) One Duffedar on Rs. 14.	..	60
Two peons on Rs. 12 each	..
Two peons on Rs. 11 each.	..
(6) Contingent grant ..	..	5
		$389\frac{8}{9}$ per mensem.
		or Rs. $4,786\frac{2}{3}$ per annum.

5. The Revenue Commissioner is of opinion that the services of the Special Duty Amildar will have to be continued till the end of December 1928, and that being the case, there is no necessity to appoint another officer. He suggests that the Special Duty Amildar might be directed to do the duties of the City Amildar and that the Record of Rights work might be attended to by him and by the Taluk Amildar in their respective jurisdiction. He proposes that half of the extra cost due to the bifurcation of the taluk might be met from the allotment for Record of Rights and the balance sanctioned as an additional grant to the Revenue Department.

6. Government approve of these proposals as a temporary measure for a period of two years. The arrangements will come into effect from 1st October 1928. A demand for a supplemental grant of Rs. 2,400 will be placed before the Legislative Council at its next session.

SIR,

Subject:— Re - Elections of Members for the Representati Assembly and Legislative Council.

Page 70 of RA and LC manual Vol I

I have the honor to state that as per Annexure I to Notification No.P.2394/Legis.12-23-1 dated 7th November 1923, the number of members to be returned by the Rural Constituency of the Bangalore Taluk and Closepet Sub-Taluk to the Representative Assembly is 3 and 1 respectively. Since the last elections, the Bangalore Taluk has been bifurcated with separate Amildars to Bangalore City and Bangalore Taluk with separate jurisdictions, each being confined to certain Hoblis and the Closepet Sub-Taluk has been converted into a pukka Taluk. According to Government orders Nos. 3101-2/L.B.30-39-29 dated 28th October 1929 and Camp L.7/L.B.30-29 dated 15th October 1929 fixing the number of members to be elected by the General Constituencies for the Bangalore District Board, the Bangalore Taluk, Bangalore City and Closepet Taluk constituencies have to elect 3, 1 and 2 members respectively. I would therefore propose that the same number of members may be elected by the above stated Rural constituencies also to Representative Assembly. If this proposal were to stand, I request you to kindly obtain orders of Government in the matter early and communicate the same to me.
